Newsletter - June 2018

Hi to all the Club. Quite a quiet month this time, well everyone is either out sunbathing whilst the weather continues to be warm and dry, on holiday or glued to the tv for the World Cup, the Grand prix or Wimbledon. There was one quiet important night of course - the presidential handover...

Presidential Handover - 26th June 2018

This evening, President Askir handed over the chain of office to our new President Susan Ainscough. Askir gave a lovely speech to our Club and looks forward to continuing as a Rotarian on the other side of the table. Here we have some great shots of Askir and what appears to be him trying to throttle Susan. Joking apart, the handover was very emotional as Susan took the helm and ended our meeting. Congratulations to Susan and well done to Askir for all his hard work and commitment over the last 18 months.

In case there are some Rotarians who missed Jim's talk on his wee holiday to the Borders and beyond, Jim shared his journey with the Club and told how they ended up in a beautiful cottage with fantastic hosts, great facilities and - a level access bath! Fascinated by this and the thought of a door in the middle of the bath, Susan raked her brains to wonder why all the water doesn't spill out when the doors are opened. As Askir reminded the Club that this was in fact our new president, Jim explained how it all worked. With Susan's mind still working overtime thinking how she might like one of these grand baths and trying to imagine herself in one, we thought it might be nice to present Susan with her very own momento.....
